

EXAMPLES OF POORLY SHIELDED LIGHTING

Intense, poorly shielded lighting illuminates rooftops, wasting energy and causing sky-glow

Powerful, unshielded flood light

Upward lighting causes glare and light pollution. Note shadows on roof lines

Angled, poorly shielded floodlight causes upward and down-street glare

Poorly shielded “wall-pack” light causes dazzling glare at a local fire station

Popular mercury vapor/metal halide light fixture causes intense glare and sky pollution