

Sense poem

Watch the "Nature Journaling" video, then create your own poem using your 5 senses below.

Line 1- If I were a color,

Line 2- If I were a sound,

Line 3- If I were a smell,

Line 4- If I were a taste,

Line 5- If I were a surface to touch,

Here are some examples:

If I were a color, I'd be practical navy blue.

If I were a sound, I'd be a bright "have a nice day."

If I were a smell, I'd be a sweet old-fashioned lilac.

If I were a taste, I'd be a bitter-sweet lemon drop.

If I were a surface to touch, I'd be soft like pajama flannel.

Liz Reishus

Warrod, Minn.

If I were a color, I'd be light yellow.

If I were a sound, I'd be a soft whisper.

If I were a smell, I'd be a forest after a rainfall.

If I were a taste, I'd be a slice of fresh-baked bread.

If I were a surface to touch, I'd be shimmery silk.

Rachel Carlson

Glenview, Ill.