5 Day Costa Rica Adventure for 2 at Rescate, Latin America's oldest and largest wildlife rescue organization–including lodging, on-site meals, and a day trip to Poas Volcano and Doka Coffee Ranch.

Quite simply, there is no country in the world like Costa Rica. This beautiful, small nation, holds 5% of the world's biodiversity and, having abolished its military, it is renowned for its peaceful way of life. Just a short flight away from New England, it offers a vision of tropical paradise with its multiple habitats and abundant wildlife.

Here is your chance to enjoy five days and four nights at Rescate Wildlife Rescue Center, https://rescatewildlife.org including newly renovated, basic accommodations (queen size bed, en suite bathroom) and meals on site at Rescate. Guests will enjoy an insider view of the sanctuary, the oldest and largest wildlife rescue/rehabilitation/rewilding organization in all of Latin America! The sanctuary is conveniently located just 20 minutes from the San Jose airport, where a driver will pick you up when you arrive. While at the sanctuary, guests will experience a guided tour of the sanctuary where you will meet many of the over 1,000 resident animals, including jaguars, sloths, monkeys. toucans and more. Also included is an exclusive behind-the-scenes tour of the wildlife rehabilitation center, and the opportunity to learn firsthand about the rescue, veterinary care, rehabilitation, and release of Costa Rica's native wildlife. This package will also include a day trip to Poás Volcano National Park (am) and Doka Coffee Plantation (pm). Transportation and entry fees only are included on this day trip. Both destinations have a lovely snack bar and gift shop. Hacienda Doka has a beautiful butterfly garden and an impressive bonsai garden.

This unique adventure is suitable for almost any age and ability, as the rescue center is relatively easy to get around, and both Poás Volcano and the Doka Coffee Plantation involve easy walking. (Additional hiking trail maps are available at Poas for the hardy.)
Jeanne Marie Pittman, Rescate's Director of Conservation, will help coordinate your visit and ensure that your itinerary and pace are tailored to your interests and mobility. When available, she will be happy to spend time with you personally during your stay and the Rescate team will make sure you are well looked after throughout your visit. The team can also provide insider recommendations if you would like to extend your trip to explore other parts of Costa Rica, such as Monteverde, Manuel Antonio or Corcovado National Parks. *This offer is good from January - December 2027.

Unique, all day Whale and Seabird Cruise for two in the Gulf of Maine, with lovely overnight lodging on Mount Desert Island, home of Acadia National Park.

Only once a year, the Bar Harbor Whale Watch Company takes nature lovers, photographers and other adventurous souls on an 80 mile cruise from Bar Harbor to a remarkable part of the ocean known as Cashes Ledge. Called “The Yellowstone of the North Atlantic” by the world’s foremost marine researcher, Sylvia Earle, Cashes Ledge has been nominated to be a National Marine Sanctuary.

Experienced naturalist Zach Klyver will identify a wide array of sea bird species and marine mammals as you ply these fertile waters. This is a rare opportunity to travel back in time to a lost world teeming with abundant fish that beckon a tremendous diversity of sea birds such as puffins, shearwaters, storm petrels– and marine mammals, including several whale species, exuberant pods of dolphins, abundant grey seals. You may even spot a basking shark, leatherback sea turtle or ocean sunfish!

After a full day’s cruise, return to cozy lodging on scenic Mount Desert Island. Enjoy the chance to hike or bike on historic carriage roads the next day.

The cruise is scheduled for only one day in September 2027, date to be determined.
